Douglas Corrigan's Story; Flyer to Keep Plane, Doesn't Want It to Rot in Museum

Lived on Shoestring to Buy Old Ship and There Is Plenty of Service Left in Craft Now, Pilot Says.

How he worked, saved and fought to learn aviation is told herewith by Douglas Corrigan, who flew from New York to Dublin in his nine-year-old $900 plane. This is the second of a series of chapters of Corrigan's own story of his life and his unheralded achievement.

Notice has been issued by head-quarters of the Democratic City mmittee of political meetings to htion was reviewed in St. Louis be held in each of the 28 wards next Friday night. Six thousand city employes will be expected to attend. Instructions will be given them on getting out the vote in the primary of Aug. 2 for the slate of the city administration and most of the committee members. The city workers will be called on to obtain votes for John J. Dwyer for Circuit Clerk, James M. Douglas for Supreme Judge and Bennett C. Clark for United States Senator. Mayor Dickmann has advocated nomination of these three candidates. It has been generally understood, in addition, that most of the Democratic committee mem bers will support Frank C. O'Mal ley and Charles B. Williams, incumbents, and Robert L. Aronson Edward M. Ruddy and Richard T. Brownrigg for places as Circuit Judges. A majority of the city committee in the Twelfth District is backing C. Arthur Anderson for renomination for Congressman.

Meetings such as those to be held Friday have become the practice in recent years. Telegraphic reminders to the committee members to arrange the gatherings directed them to see Lawrence L. Will, statistician in the Mayor's office, for further information. Will said to a Post-Dispatch reporter that he knew nothing of the plans. Committee members expected that Mayor Dickmann would deliver an address in his home ward, the Fourteenth, which would be broadcast for the other ward meetings,

HOPKINS STARTING THIRD TERM MOVE, REPUBLICANS SAY

Hamilton's Charge Follows Statement That 90 Per Cent of Those on Relief Favor Administration.

Republican Chairman Says Roosevelt and Aids Seek in Power.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, July 22.—Harry Hopkins' assertion that 90 per cent of Federal relief recipients favor the Roosevelt administration aroused today a Republican cry of "launching the Roosevelt third term movement." The W P A Administrator told reporters yesterday the reason for the relief workers' attitude was that "we're the only crowd that has anything constructive to offer." John Hamilton, Republican National Chairman, immediately called by the Roosevelt administration to "perpetuate itself in power." Chairman Sheppard, (Dem.), Texas, of the Senate Campaign Investigating Committee, said he would study the strike of A. F. of L. building mechanics in support of demonds.

Questions about a third term for Mr. Roosevelt were put to Hopkins at a press conference. He turned Hamilton, however, asserted Hopkins was referring to the 1940 presidential race in his general statements about W P A voters. "If Mr. Hopkins did not have in the back of his mind an intention to promote Mr. Roosevelt for a third term," Hamilton said, "why did he make such a statement? "In view of this development reasons become clearer for the constant increase of the Federal relief rolls-now reaching a new high record—and the failure of the Roosevelt administration to take steps to stimulate private industry. "Obviously the Roosevelt administration is seeking to perpetuate itself in power through the use of the start of the current fiscal year relief funds, because, as the President said in 1936, Every message in a pay envelope, even if it is

He said Republican suggestions for meeting the relief problem were "pathetic." In recent congressional sessions Republicans have proposed that relief should be handled by the states with Federal aid.

WPA Worker Arrested by Troops - Admits He Took Fart in Fight at Washing Machine Plant.

NEWTON, Ia., July 22.-Amid umors that settlement was near in the Maytag labor dispute, the National Labor Relations Board hearing yesterday was suddenly adjourned until tomorrow morn-

Madison Hill, trial examiner for the Labor Board, declared he was adjourning the hearing on his own responsibility, after considering the very flat statements made by the Governor of this State."

Hill referred to the Governor's declaration that under existing nartial law he would keep the Maytag plant closed until the union and the company "got together."
The trial examiner called the adjournment, he said, "so that all parties concerned may possibly ob-tain some advantage from the recess and give attention to the whole situation before them."

The Labor Board hearing is on charges filed by the United Elec-trical, Radio & Machine Workers' Union that the company engaged in unfair labor practices.

No Definite Steps Taken. Hill's guarded statement immedi ately gave rise to many rumors that a settlement of the dispute between the Maytag company and the union was imminent. Although such a possibility obviously does exist at any time, it was learned that no definite steps toward ettlement had been undertaken

Two more incidents, however gave rise to additional rumors. William Sentner, international vicepresident of the union, left Newton for St. Louis, his home, pre-sumably to see his wife and re-

Judge Advocate Frank B. Hallagan announced that Brown had aditted assaulting Ben Wintersten of Colfax, member of the "back-to-work" movement in the Maytag labor controversy at Colfax, a few niles away.

Brown, reported to be a union sympathizer, also was involved in the fighting near the Maytag washing machine factory Wednesday orning. He admitted to the mili tary commission that he was the man in a newspaper photograph shown pushing the head of another combatant down toward the pavement.

Judge Advocate Hallagan said Brown told the commission he drove to Newton Wednesday morning to see what was going on and got into the fight. According to military procedure, no specific charge was made against Brown.

Brown's arrest, Judge Advocate Hallagan announced, interrupted the commission's launching of an investigation into fighting between union sympathizers and "back-to-workers" at the Maytag plant Wednesday.

PICK-A-BACK PLANE

Will Make Two Stops After Hop-Off Monday to Test Atlantic Routes.

PORT WASHINGTON, N. Y.,

July 22.—The British Pick-a-Back plane Mercury was groomed today for its return flight to Ireland after opening a new chapter of trans-Atlantic air travel. Capt. Donald C. T. Bennett brought the Imperial Airways ex-perimental craft down here late yesterday, convinced he had dem-onstrated the feasibility of launch-ing heavily laden planes in midar. The Mercury brought a 1000-pound cargo in addition to its pilot and radio operator, Albert Coster, to the airways terminal a little more than 25 hours after its take-off from the back of a mother plane off the coast of Ireland.

"This system of launching," Capt. Bennett who is 28 years old, said, "has great possibilities. I can con-ceive of a couple of mother ships launching whole fleets of heavily laden bombers in wartime." Carried 1180 Gallons of Gas.

In addition to its cargo-London newspaper and newsreels showing the arrival of King George and Queen Elizabeth on their state visit to Paris—the Mercury carried an 1180-gallon gasoline load when it was tossed, eaglet fashion, on its way at an altitude of 3000 feet. This method of launching, Capt. ennett said, is superior to Germans' catapult, which hurls clanes aloft from ship deck. "Our system does not discom-mode passengers," the Australian-born pilot explained.

The journey, completed in a flying time of 22 hours, 24 minutes (the plane stopped only at Boucher-ville, Quebec, Montreal's air terminal, two hours, 40 minutes en route here) was the first of its kind from such a takeoff.

The Mercury on its return hop-off Monday will be lighter by far than when it left Foynes. Without the mother ship, it will be com-pelled to take off from the bay in face tension acts as a drag on the The return flight will be by way

by Gov. Stark.

Garrett defended the backing of Judge Billings by the Pendergast organization of Kansas City, saying a group of men have the same privilege of deciding en masse to back a candidate as has a citizen. He said every elective state official now in office had the backing of the Pendergast organization, and Garrett and Wayne Ely of the Pendergast organization, and that up to this campaign, there had been no objection to such support. Garrett declared Gov. Stark "used SLISBURY, Mo., July 22,-Ely of St. Louis and Col.

which Judge Douglas probably will get in the 10 counties in this extreme section of the State.

The meeting was larger than Positively No Interest — No Carrying Charge even the Douglas supporters had expected, and the audience at times was very enthusiastic in its ap-plause at denunciation of election frauds, of the insurance deal and of Pendergast. lings' Lead Not to Be Large. While there is no reason to be-lieve that Judge Douglas will carry many counties in this part of the State, the attendance at the meeting here is being taken as an in-dication that the Billings majority will not be large, and that it will not go much, if any, above 10,000 in the 10 southeastern counties. Mississippi and Cape Girardeau counties are being counted for Judge Dougas, and his supporters insist that he has a fighting chance to carry Scott and New Madrid counties. However, the probabilities are that these two, as well as the other southeastern counties, except Mississippi and Cape Girar-deau, will be carried by Judge Bil-

It is probable a larger meeting could be arranged for Judge Billings than the Douglas meeting last night, this being close to his home county and adjoining his judicial circuit, but the size of the gathering last night was such as to increase the confidence of the Douglas supporters. The Governor took cognizance of reports which have been circulated and which have reached him that in some precincts in this part of the State there would be attempts at intimidation of W P A workers, and that there were dangers of election frauds in isolated places.

"The Governor of Missouri has considerable power," he said, "and I want to know if these tactics are attempted. I promise you that if there should be such cases I will see that they are presented to the courts. There will be no compromise of election frauds any place in the State of Missouri while I am

Give Up Homes on Vancouver Island-Fighters Handicapped by Sabotage.

By the Associated Press SEATTLE, Wash., July 22. —
One hundred families moved from their homes before a great forest fire on Vancouver Island today, abandoning the small settlements of

Headquarters and Doug Creek, Police Constable C. Ramsey reported to headquarters at Victoria in no immediate danger. Evacuation was ordered as a precau tionary measure. He said the dan-gerous 50,000-acre blaze had ap-proached to within two or three miles of the villages. Sabotage in British Columbia and incendiarism in Washington State and Oregon were considered the chief obstacles to a successful fight against the fires in Pacific northwest forests.

The situation throughout the Pacific Northwest was reported to be the most serious in recent years Low humidity and rising temperatures added to the difficulty. British Columbia forestry officials began weeding out groups of men they termed "inexperienced"

C. J. Haddon, chief forester in the Vancouver district, said no arrests had been made.

At least 150 firemen will be dismissed and sent back to Vancouver, Haddon said.

J. M. Ferguson, Oren State For State was the most serious in the By the Associated Press. 28-year history of the State For-Department. Incendiarists were blamed for the spreading of many fires. Officials said the "fire bugs" were unemployed men seeking work as fire fighters. Flames threatened rich timbe stands, communities, crops and farm homes. The wind aided the spread of many of the fires. Late last night Scottsburg, Ore Umpqua River village, was de-clared temporarily out of danger from a fire that already has swept over 6000 acres. Washington State Forest Supervisor T. S. Goodyear said the fire-men were holding their own against this State's series of blazes. The most serious, the Ryder-wood-Mount Abernathy blaze in Southwest Washington, was partly under control of several hundred fire fighters. The fire centered in logged-off land.

Firemen were dispatched late yesterday to a new 40-acre blaze on Washington's Olympic peninsula, where several old fires still burned. At several points water shortage added to the menace.

Seven Jews and 9 Arabs Victims of Clashes in Separated Areas.

JERUSALEM, July 22.—Seven Jews and nine Arabs were killed and five Jewish workers were wounded in a series of clashes in widely separated districts last night and today. A Jew was killed in ambush on the Jerusalem-Jaffa main highway. The eight Arabs were killed by police and troops pursuing a band which attacked a colony near Haifa yesterday. Two Jewish policemen were illed and the five workers wounded in an attack from ambush on a lorry carrying workers near Saba Three Jews were killed and two were wounded last night when a band of 20 hill men attacked a well boring gang encamped on the west-ern shore of the Dead Sea. The band robbed the camp armory and escaped in the Judean wilderness Another band entered Nablus and killed the head man of a nearby Arab village, who was sitting in a cafe. A Jewish watchman guarding vineyards south of Haifa was am-

History of Factory. The factory's story began two years ago, when needleworkers in New York and Philadelphia organized the Workers' Aim Co-operative Association and began operating a plant near Hightstown on capital subscribed at the rate of $500 per worker member. The products, in design, workmanship and material, were admitted to be equal to the mony for the defense.

The organizations represented by these officers have agreed to be-come wholesale buyers of Jersey Homesteads garments, and all other co-operative societies in the country have been invited to do likewise. Among those which have ac cepted so far are the Atlantic Clo ing Co-operative, Inc., of New York City, the California Co-operative Wholesale of Berkeley, and Consumers Co-operative Clothing, Inc., of Chicago.

Election clerks began today a house-to-house canvass of the city to prepare the precinct registration lists which will be used in the private sources, but the losses continued. In November of last year it was found necessary to appeal to the FSA for an additional loan of $150,000. mary Aug. 2.

In order to safeguard this sum, and also its $50,000 loan already outstanding, the Department of Ag-riculture, after an investigation, decided that it had two alternatives—either to install Government managers or find them outside, Attention was turned logically to the against the precinct lists of regis-tered voters. C I O MEMBERS DRIVEN OUT

WESTWOOD, Cal., July 22.-Forty automobiles carrying families of Committee for Industrial Organof Committee for Industrial Organ-ization Union members, who were driven from this lumber area re-cently, re-entered the town yester-day without trouble, but tension increased when rumors spread that they might try to re-establish pick-et lines around the Red River Lum-her Co. ber Co.

Sheriff Olin Johnson told the C I O men to go to their houses

The trouble arose after the C I O called a strike when the lumber company recently cut wages 17½ per cent. The C I O charged the workers were driven out by vigilantes, After the incident the members of the company-recognized in-dependent employers union joined the American Federation of Labor. Some 1800 men went to work at the STANFORD, Ky., July 22.-A coroner's jury here returned a ver-dict yesterday that a 65-year-old woman murdered her husband of less than half her age and took her own life. The coroner said the woman, Mrs. Ella Dishon Wood, fired three revolver shots which hit her husband, Irvine, 29, and two shots into her own chest without leaving her bed at their home eight

Chamber of Commerce Says Bonds Could Be Met Without Higher Taxes.

Taxes would not have to be inreased to retire the proposed $850,-00 bond issue for a new St. Louis County Courthouse at Clayton, the County Chamber of Commerce declared today in a statement advocating passage of the bonds, by a two-thirds majority, at the Aug. 2 primary.

A tax rate of 3 cents on the $100 valuation would be required to pay valuation would be required to pay interest and principal on the proposed bond issue, Comptroller Edwin O. Harper said to a Post-Dispatch reporter. He pointed out that decreasing needs for past bond issues would make it possible to reduce the tax rate for them from 42 cents to 40 or 39 cents. If, for a few years, the 40-cent rate was needed for the old issues, the country general rate could be cut 1 cent to complete the offset for the new bonds, he added.

steady increase of population in the county in the last 38 years and the expectation that there would be a much greater increase in the next 22 years and said a new Courth should be planned to meet the present and future needs. A survey for the County Court several years ago, he pointed out, showed that remodeling of the existing structure would be costly and still would not provide all the needed facilities. Architects to direct erection would be chosen by the County Court and a citizens' advisory committee, Var-

The Clayton Rotary Club, meeting yesterday, at the Claymo Hotel, unanimously indorsed the bond is-sue. It heard an address by Mayor Charles A. Shaw of Clayton in favor of the proposal. He said it was a civic, not a political, question, and called the old Courthouse an

The plans approved yesterday, drawn by Walter L. Rathmann of Klipstein & Rathmann and Joseph D. Murphy of Murphy, Wischmeyer & Fitch, called for a Colonial structure, in H-shape, with walls of red brick and limestone trim, 96 feet Clayton City Hall and other recent construction in the central part of the county seat. Overall dimensions would be 251 by 258 feet, and there would be four stories.

Facilities provided would include space for four future Circuit Court livisions, a Police Court, counting on eventual removal of traffic and other misdemeanor cases from the jurisdiction of Justices of the Peace; a Coroner's court, a 750-seat public assembly hall, law library and central jury assembly room.

The present site would be enlarged by adding the county-owned park in the next block, placing the cen-ter of the new structure in what is now Carondelet avenue. The old building could be used during consmall rear portion in the later

She Is Accused of Biting and Scratching to Get Film.

By the Associated Press.

LOS ANGELES, July 22. — Two suits for damages totaling $2622.70 were filed yesterday against Sally Rand, fan and bubble dancer, accusing her of descending into a the-ater audience to "maliciously, un-lawfully and wilfully bite, scratch and tear" at a young man and woman. The plaintiffs are Miss Hazel Drain, 22 years old, and her candid camera fan escort, C. R. Stanford, 26.

They charge Miss Rand bit Miss Drain and scratched Stanford's neck and tore his shirt in efforts to recover film from Stanford's camera which he snapped at the dancer from the front row seats of Staggering Giants.

Bill Terry's Giants didn't look very good as they dropped two games out of four to the Cardinals, and a glance at the standing of the clubs indicates that they haven't been very good since the early weeks of the pennant

The National League champions started with their usual rush, knocking over the other Eastern clubs until they had 18 victories out of their first 21 games, a remarkable record, even against the the Bees, Phillies and Dodgers. Since then the Giants have crawled along at a colorless pace. They are only three games above the .500 mark for their last 63 games, having won 33 and lost 30.

Terry, of course, has had his troubles. Joe Moore has been out for a month with a leg injury and he is one of the key men of the Giant team, which always has stressed defense. Joe is one of the most accurate throwers in the business and an excellent left fielder. Bob Seeds, the slugger from Newark, doesn't rate with Moore as a defensive man and isn't even carrying his share of the burden on the attack. Left field, during the series with the Loss of Whitehead.

The New York infield, one of the best defensive combinations in the business, was weakened by the loss of Burgess Whitehead. The former Cardinal is back at his Carolina home now, and Terry is hopeful that he will be able to return to duty during the final weeks of the campaign.

To plug the gap created by the loss of Whitehead, Terry obtained Alexis Kampouris from the Reds Kampouris, according to followers of the Giant team, doesn't fit into Terry's picture of an infield —that is, he doesn't play Giant baseball. But to get somebo play second base, Terry had to part with Walter Berger, and dur-ing the Cardinal series, with Catcher Harry Danning under suspension, Terry was forced to call on a pitcher, Hal Schumacher, when he needed a right-handed

At the mile and one-quarter dis-fance, Stagehand appears certain to beat The Chief his stablemate, although The Chief defeated Stagehand when they hooked up at one and one-eighth miles a few weeks ago. That great stretch run of Stagehand is almost irresistible — Seabiscuit found that out at Santa Anita last March.

STAGEHAND ALSO has Eastern engagements that may net him a fortune before he is sent to grass for a winter rest. He not only has a chance to win something like $100,000, but also beat War Admiral and Seato beat War Admiral and Sea-biscuit in all-age events at Sara-toga or elsewhere. If he is as good as he seemed in his recent victory in the East, Stagehand, at the weight for age scale, should be tough for any of the standout handicap horses. Then, should he again win the $100,000 handleap, it would put him practically on a par with Sun Beau's winning total—and at the age of four! If Stagehand wins his remaining races, he undoubtedly will receive the committee's vote as the three-year-old champion of the year. Should he score a victory over the older stars, he will be ber 1 candidate for the "best horse in the country" honor.

No Cinch for Sande.

THE CLASSIC STAKES appears to einch for Sande, even though he has two powerful candidates. Just now it seems that the con-tenders of outstanding merit will be Buil Lea and Menow. The son of Pharamond II is supposed not to like that mile and one-quarter route. His victory over War Admiral and others on an off-color track gives him a look-in, however. And that recent workout in 2:04 certainly cannot be overlooked. Bull Les, again in form, may prove troublesome.

Lawrin, Dauber and Pasteurized, winner of the Kentucky Derby, the Preakness and the Belmont Stakes, respectively, all are out of the running with injuries.

Stagehand's splendid effort in the Empire City Handicap indicates he has regained his top form. He made up a world of ground lost in a slow start and owed a terrific later, passing his field in the stretch as though the contend-

"Someone might beat Riggs at Seabright, Rye and Newport," Pate explained. "I'm not saying that's likely to happen, but you can't dis-miss the possibility. And any play-er able to do that certainly would be a hard one to overlook." Several of the candidates for the

The Pirates, however, are not the only threat this year. The Cubs, with a new manager and with Dixxy Dean supposedly available again for a regular starting assignment, may spurt back into the pennant picture. They're only six games behind the Pirates and a winning streak, at which the Cubs excel, quickly would put them back in a contending position...

Then the Reds cannot be overlooked. They faltered after their June drive, but they still have power and great potential pitching strength and if they ever reach the heights, they'll be hard to knock over. Certainly it seems that in the National League at least there is a fine chance that the New York world series monopoly will be broken this year. Strangely enough many observnopoly will be broken this year.
Strangely enough many observers think the Giants have the experience, defensive strength and power to stand off all National League challengers, and yet they figure that the Pirates, Cubs or even the Reds would stand a better chance against the American Leaguers in the world series. The Giants seem to have given themselves a bad world series name.

Full of Fish. ABOARD U. S. S. HOUSTON, En Route to Panama, Puly 22.—President Roosevelt's vacation fishing cruise led him today toward the Galapagos Islands. A voyage of 1300 miles lay ahead of the Houston when it left Clipperton Island yes-terday, its refrigerators full of fish that the President and his party caught in a five-hour expedition. Also aboard the warship was new information concerning the location of Clipperton, 675 miles off Acapulco, Mexico, but one mile southeast of its present charted position according to observations taken by Capt. G. N. Barker, commander of the Houston. Specimens of the volcanic island's bird, animal and marine life were gathered by Prof. Waldo Schmitt while the President fished and never to be heard from again. land and surrounding waters from

The men were identified as Arthur Rudolph Lorenz, former Parisian, and a Norwegian sailor named Nuggerood. Lorenz was gnown to have lived in a colony of Charles Island headed by the Baroness Eloise de Wagner. How the two men got to Marchena Island never was solved.

There was no trace of a boat. Subsequently, it was learned the Baroness and a companion, Robert Philipson, who possibly could have shed some light on the mystery

Congressional Committee Impounds Legal Opinions With Reference to Altered Records.

By the Associated Press. KNOXVILLE, Tenn., July 22.-David E. Lilienthal, a director of the Tennessee Valley Authority, charged today the furore raised over changes in the TVA board minutes was a "reckless campaign of defamation" conducted by Dr. Arthur E. Lilienthal said he and his asso 'feel that Dr. Morgans' accusations answered before we can get to the more constructive phases of this investigation."

Says All Made Changes.
In fact, he said, it was "Arthur Morgan's practice of altering min-utes after they had been signed by the other directors and without their knowledge" that necessitated a change in procedure for approval and signature of the minutes.

In a memorandum dated June 17, 1937, Lillienthal said Dr. Morgan made additions to minutes after he had signed them, forcing him to ask for board action on the matter, with the result that the board or with them six Tahitian men and 12 with the result that the board or with them six Tahitian men and 12 with the result that the board or water and the six Tahitian men and 12 with the result that the board or water that no ship had stopped at Pittakin in six weeks and the islanders were running short of supplies. Hoffman Questione Under questioning by Biddle, committee counsel, Hoffman said the first change in the minutes was made Nov. 2, 1933, and others at intervals since.

Hoffman, who previously said he had orders not to see Dr. Morgan, told of a conference last Sunday with the ousted chairman and his attorney, E. H. Cassels of Chicago. Cassels told him, he said, that "I was to give Biddle a report on our confidential interview." He said Biddle told him to make a report on the meeting "for our files," outining the topics discuss

They said last April that the administration would insist on full and fair indemnification of persons who had invested meager savings in small ranches and farms which subsequently were taken over by the Mexican Government. But they indicated that the administration considered the oil properties to be over-valued by their owners, and that it would try to collect for them only damages equivalent to actual investment, less depreciation.

That article alluded to the fact that Mr. Priest is being opposed by James A. Mr. Priest found it necessary to collect a large amount of court costs from me. I cannot, of course, speak for Mr. Waechter for I have never learned his reasons for such opposition. I can, however, give

I signed a bond protecting the Circuit Clerk against loss of court costs in cer-tain cases. After Mr. Priest took office, he caused an audit to be made which showed that a large amount of costs were uncollected, and that I was surety in a number of such cases, in which the unpaid costs aggregated several thou-

A HANDICAP to greatness is lack of opportunity for those who are capable. We have just as great electricians as Edison or Tesla walking the streets. The flight of Douglas P. In the time of Edison, we had no giant corporations such as now maintain research crews of highly educated specialists, technically trained in their various lines, with the best laboratory equipment mon-ey can buy, and whose only duty is to invent and experiment. This is what the average individual must compete with in making an opportunity for himself. Corrigan made his opportunity, but

Guy B. Park, who is beholden to Boss Tom Pendergast for the term he served as Governor of Missouri, has taken the stump for Judge Billings, the Pendergast candidate for the short Supreme Court term against the incumbent, Judge Douglas.

Why this sudden pacific move by Berlin? One inference might be that it was intended to take the edge off the visit of the British sovereign to Paris. There is ground for believing, however, that there are deeper and more tangible motives for the peace overture.

So much for that.

In the editorial to which Mr. Eagleton refers, we made the point that one of the factors in the campaign against Mr. Priest in his refusal to follow the slipshod methods of his predecessors by permitting court costs to pile up for years on end. The money itself is of possibly less importance than the advantage such neglect gives to lawyers who desire to capitalize it.

Just as Mr. Priest's vigitance in this, as well as many other phases of his job, has made it desirable to retain him as Circuit Clerk, it is a perfectly fair inference that it operates to hurt him politically the Circuit Clerk.

The issue of unpaid court costs is only part of a greater one involved in the fight on Mr. Priest, namely, control of the processes of justice in St. Louis. The Circuit Clerk's office is a key point which must be captured if the courts are to be manipulated.

How a committee of determined private citizens, working with co-operation of public officials, replaced a system of waste and graft with one conducted along businesslike lines, including central purchasing and proper accounting methods; writer inquires if such committees everywhere would not serve to invigorate democracy.

voluntary group of men who wrought a revolution in local affairs has been on the job for almost four years. This unpaid mittee hasn't stayed angry for four years, but it has stayed tough-minded. And its achievement is especially meaningful because it has regenerated a county. The county in most states is the root of power for the political machines of both county is a hothed of waste and graft. And battled primarily against individuals but against the vicious system that produces bad government. The group has consistently let the officeholders take credit for reforms which the committee itself has initiated.

In this it differs from many "good government" groups and offers an illuminating exment" groups and offers an illuminating example to other communities: Not to act as as co-operative, fact-finding helpers.

In the '70s, the City of St. Lo itself politically from St. Louis County and set up an independent government. The county, once primarily agricultural, has in the past 20 years experienced a tremendous influx from the city which has trebled its population and increased its assessed valuans to $270,000,000.

Despite this increase in wealth, the county, even before the worst of the depression, was failing to break even. Repeatedly, it bor-rowed money to meet running expenses. rants of county employes, and they had to peddle them to local merchants at a 20 per cent discount.

Perhaps if this had been an average county, nothing would have happened beyond the murmurs that politicians usually disre-gard. But living in this county were a group of energetic men who in their own businesses took good management so much businesses took good management so much for granted that they were shocked into action. That action started in fall of 1934.

The governing body in Missouri counties is the "County Court," composed of three "Judges." These Judges, however, have no judicial functions; they correspond to county commissioners in other states. After the 1934 elections, the county Chamber of Comerce went to the new court and ann that it wished to appoint a committee to cooperate in improving local government. The court agreed.

A committee of 12 business Mansfield C. named, with a lumber dealer, Mansfield C. Bay, as chairman. Immediate investigation showed that the county was $1,250,000 in the red, and setting deeper all the time.

Bay's first move was dramatic. He asked the 25 elected officers of the county to meet his group in the courthouse. "Gentlemen." his group in the courthouse. "Gentlemen," he said, "many of you have expressed your

"What do you base that on?" the County Court asked. The Sheriff was cut to 40 cents a day for prisoners. During 1935, the committee, every men ber of which was a busy man, held over 100 meetings and uncovered more inefficiency and waste. Many of the county saloons and taverns were paying no license fee. The County Court named two inspectors, and revenue increased by $30,000 a year. The committee discovered that $330,000 of chool money had been lent on mortgages, and that for years the taxes on much of the property, as well as the interest on th loans, had not been paid. Payments were being made for people who had been dead for years. They discovered how profit from all such graft had spread from the courthouse, so that there were hundreds of men in the community who fought to keep things as they were. Bay, the committee's chairman, received threatening letters. But he moved ahead faster than ever.

"It was curious," he says today, "how the attitude of those courthouse fellows changed as we went on. First, they thought we had political ambitions. But not one of us would take a political job on a bet. We had only one ambition—good government. It was hard for the courthouse gang to believe

The Franco-British Alliance and the German "Revolution"

PARIS, July, 20.

THE King and Queen of England are in Paris and perhaps it may sound like conventional phetoric to say that their visit is the outward sign that there has come into being a Franco-British alliance for the maintenance of guropean peace. But Europe believe that there is now no way to prevent war except by such an armed union. Why do they think that? Or to put it in another way, what do they hope for as a result of this armed resistance? It is often said that Hiller will not start a war if he is certain that Britain, France and Russia will be against him. Most men take this view. But what there

S THIS machine age a flop, as far as the individual is concerned? Does it, despite its dazzling scientific discoveries, result in less happiness, less pride and contentment for Bub and Sis? Helen V. Handford of Batesville, Arkansas, believes that it is and it does:

"Dear Miss Robinson: "There's so much discussion of our present age . . . so many people boasting of the remarkable progress which has been made . . . so many blaming the Younger Generation for going to the dogs. Personally I admit the mechanical progress . . . but also feel that, individually, we're far worse off! "I'm only 21 but I can easily see the difference in those days and ours. Today everyone seems in a mad rush trying to get rich-chasing after excitement which isn't really worth the time spent. I like and appreciate all the benefits of the modern world, but why not mix in a few of the old-fashioned customs and pleasures? Early this winter I suggested to some friends that we gather at one of the girl's homes, and pop corn and make candy. They laughed at the idea! Why can't we enjoy the simpler things in life as much as our fathers and grandfathers did?

"The argument is that they did not have the modern diversion and therefore had to take what they could. But after all, movies, automobiles, night clubs, bridge parties, cocktail parties, and radios are about all we have that they didn't. Instead of taking these things moderately, the modern age is forever seeking new thrills-going faster-

"Surely there should be something better than this to be got out of life. The world should slow up a bit, have more faith in God, and work for a Mental and Spiritual Renaissance."

I AGREE WITH you completely, Helen. But, unfortunately, such a reform is like trying to cure a drunkard of his alcoholism. A drunk ard seeks booze because he wishes to escape the responsibility and monotony of his daily life. Modern America seeks excitement for the MICKEY ROONEY AND ANN same season. The man who seeks booze to excess and the man who seeks drugs are in the same class . . . they are both cowards, trying to escape reality. And the only way to reform young people is to make them realize this fact. You can't cure them by sneering or sermoniz

Appeal to their pride and independence . . . make them see that regular people can exist without "hop" of any sort . . . challenge their resourcefulness instead of cussing their restlessness . . . and you'll bring back the old, American spirit.

Answer: Although there is a fixed rule against giving away anything which has been given you, the reason for this is that it suggests lack of appreciation of the gift and is therefore hurtful to the feelings of months now, and I'm a little out of the giver. High Blood Pressure

By Logan Clendening, M. D.

THE POST-MERIDIAN atmosphere on the porches of summer hotels is likely to be filled with lengthy discussions of high blood pressure. The occupants of the rockers, ceaselessly rocking back and forth, whisper that the gentleman with the cane is here on account of

Then the blow may fall upon anyone else on the porch, and through a casual visit to the doctor one discovers that he or she, too, has blood pressure.

Sometimes one feels that doctors ought to stop telling people about their blood pressure, for the average person takes such a serious view of it. The word "high pressure" sounds as if you were sitting on the valve of a steam boiler which might blow up any time. Doctors often forget to explain that they do not take such a serious view of the matter.

BLOOD PRESSURE is not a fixed thing. It varies and changes from time to time, especially from emotion. These emotional factors in causing a rise of blood pressure may be transitory. A good example of emotions temporarily influencing blood pressure is seen in the practical workings of the lie detector. The whole point of the test is versation and the questions asked. According to the studies of Mueller, the day and night fluctuations in people with high blood pressure follow the same pattern as normal individuals. He believes that emotional stimuli affect those with essential high pressure with extreme reactions, whereas in normal persons there would be only mild reactions.

that blood pressure changes with the emotional content of the con-

THERE ARE, however, many cases where blood pressure has continued on a high level due entirely to emotional stress. Thus a typical case related by Wolfe is of a young man who had a blood pressure continuously over 160 (diastolic 100). He was found to have a definite psychic disturbance, with fears and an anxiety neurosis. After three months of treatment, purely psychologic in character, his pressure went down to 130 (diastolic 85) and remained there.

I agree with Menninger that the attempts to treat high blood pressure with a rest cure-forbidding golf, walking or work at the officethe only forms of relaxation to which they have access-are liable to cause more damage than cure.

Where and when and how did this romance, now so sadly dis-rupted begin? How was it possible that Barbara Hutton, bitterly dis-illusioned and deeply wounded by her marriage to Alexis Mdivani, could marry another foreign title? Above all things, we in America think daily of her renunciation of her American citizenship and ponder over its cause.

The Mdivani marriage drew to a close. After Papa Hutton had acted as peacemaker in London, after there were persistent denials of any trouble, Barbara came home to New York in the winter of 1935 and Alexis went to India. But nowith the Mdivanis and a Reno trip for Barbara Hutton was in the health officer. So I got the board to meet at my house and told them would be a good thing for the village to have a health officer. It would, too, be good business all around. I said to them: If you $1500 a year, I'll leave my property to the village when I die. Provided that you appoint the right man.'

Well, about that time my chances didn't look so good, so they jumped at the chance. And there you are, with a nice little job, for a threeyear term. They wouldn't agree to any longer, but in three years you won't need that little extra in-

"How marvelous of you, Mr. Lambert!" cried Binkie. "Yes, I guess everyone's real pleased. It's a good joke on the good long time yet and I was going to leave my money to the town

"But haven't you any relatives? said the old man. "That's why here today. I said the first nickel of mine!" shouted the old do what good I can in this world

> O you think I ought to take a job obtained in that way?" said Otis stiffly to Binkie when Mr. Lambert had gone.

"Oh, don't split hairs," she answered impatiently. "It will be a good thing for Waldron, and think how it will tickle Mr. Lambert to know he paid you off so cheaply He really is a good soul, genuinely kindly, if he can be kind without parting with any cash."

The other members of the house hold were properly impressed with the news and as Lockie threw him-"How kind you are!" said Binkie.

Mr. Lambert patted her hand abplans, Otis felt more of the old
